Knitting Matters™

Malia is a Hawaiian name with many meanings, one of which is "calm and peaceful". And that's how you'll feel as you make up this easy little cardigan. The body is worked in one piece up to the armholes, then divided for the front and back portions. The main stitch pattern is a simple 2-row repeat that even a beginner can easily master.

Model shown in O-Wool Balance from Vermont Organic Fiber Co. (50% organic cotton, 50% organic wool) (1.75 oz/50 g per 130 yds/120 m). Color: turquoise. Size shown: 6 months

PATTERN SPECIFICATIONS

Sizes: 3 (6, 12, 24) months

Finished Chest Circumference: 18.25 (20, 21.5, 23.25)"/46 (51, 55, 59) cm

Gauge: In body pattern stitch: 26 sts and 26 rows per 4"/10cm (or 20 sts and 28 rows per 4" in stockinette st).

Needles: Size 7US (4.5mm) needles for body and sleeves, and size 5US (3.75mm) needles for edgings (or sizes you need to get gauge, based on your swatching results). Your edging needle should be 2 sizes smaller than your larger needle.

Yarn: 325 (400, 475, 525) yds of worsted weight yarn that gives the correct gauge.
